ANNUAL REPORT.

THE sad disaster of Johnstown, affecting, with all other local charities, the funds of this association, caused a reduction in the number of children sent for a week's holiday to the country. Fortunately the summer was cooler than usual, so that the deprivation was not so serious as it might have been in other seasons.

The work of the Country Week Association for the summer of 1889, shows the following summary of results: Total number of persons sent out, 3970. Of these the number sent to the country was 3049 children and 158 adults, for an average stay of seven days. Sent to the seashore 165 (99 adults, 66 children.) Sent on invitation 598 (46 adults, 552 children) average stay of 14 days. Permanent homes were obtained for three adults and seven children.

It will be seen that the larger part of the children went as usual on the regular Thursday trips to our boarding houses within easy reach of the city.

Of these houses we can say that they are more and more satisfactory to us every year. Our old friends in them have learned to know the character of their little city guests, and have great patience with their waywardness and short comings. Our newer houses are also highly approved by our boarding house committee, who visit at regular intervals all the farms on which our children are placed.

Our invitation list grows yearly, a fact we record with pleasure. Our good friends of Lewisburg and Muncy wrote in June, "Though our people are great sufferers from the spring floods, we still hope to do something for your poor city children," and immediately began to arrange for excursion parties, the first of which left Philadelphia on the fifth of July. These were repeated, at intervals, during the summer, and five parties, numbering in all 361 children, were entertained under the care of the Lewisburg committee. Are there not other towns in the state and nearer to Philadelphia, which will co-operate with us in similar manner? The interest of some one earnest person will often secure great results, as we have seen in the work done in Doylestown and vicinity during the past season; also in Hammonton, and in some other New Jersey towns.

A special departure, and a very gratifying one, was made in the Day-Excursion work. It began with the ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Moore's Station, who asked us to send them twenty-five poor mothers with babies or small children to spend the day. This was followed by similar invitations from Lansdowne, from Mission Band of Prospect Park M. E. Church, from Parkland, from South Chester "Y's" and others, some asking for twenty-five, some fifty, some even one hundred guests for a day's pleasure. The lifting of the spirits of the poor and depressed by these excursions (which were pervaded throughout by the spirit of loving-kindness that had prompted the invitation), is something which only our workers visiting the homes afterward can know. One poor soul said quaintly, "I've never had anything like it since the days just before my marriage, which were the happiest I ever knew."

Rural co-operation in this branch of our endeavor might be very much extended, and it is possible that some of those groups of "Tens" seeking to do good deeds, who wear the royal purple and the silver cross, might recognize this as a chance for service, and entertain some of our lowly ones "In His Name."

The good cheer of benefit received from the "country week" comes back to us continually, and in many singular ways. A poor consumptive, very near the end of her long struggle, said she had been comforted during many weary hours, living over in thought, the good times enjoyed at one of our farm houses some ten years ago. It had been, during her whole life, her only glimpse of the open country.

The general work of the association was never more satisfactory to all concerned than during the past year. For the success that has attended it we must again acknowledge the great help given by our friends, the newspapers, the railroad and steamboat companies, our country committees and entertainers, and the young ladies who went out to the country as volunteer caretakers of the children.

Special acknowledgment is due the Steamboat Company which gave a free all-day excursion on the Steamer Republic, to about six hundred and fifty mothers and children on the 26th of July.

Amongst the large number benefitted by this trip on the Republic, was an infant of ten months, a living skeleton, with no power in its limbs, and from whom came an almost continual faint moan. After we had been on the boat a short time we were surprised to find that the baby no longer moaned, and remarked to the mother about the child being so quiet. She answered, "Why, it has not moaned since I brought it on the boat." We then thought its strength was spent and that it could not live to reach home, but each time we saw it, it seemed to improve and ceased entirely to fret. Within three months it had gained seven pounds, and is now well and hearty.

The parents were exceedingly grateful and said they considered the child's life was spared through that means. The father remarked, "We owe it all to you, for we thought the child would be brought home dead."

We gratefully acknowledge thanks to the Dennison Manufacturing Co. for a liberal supply of tags and rubber bands.

To our regular contributors and the general public, we submit this report to show what they have done for the poor of our city, and to signify our willingness to be again their servants in continuing the work.

RULES FOR BOARDING-HOUSE KEEPERS.

1. All boarders are to be met at the station on their arrival and taken to the station on their return.

2. Every child, or one of every family of children, will be provided with a postal card, already addressed, upon which to report home its arrival, and the hostess is requested to see that this is posted as early as possible. The tags should be taken care of and securely re-attached to the children upon their return.

3. Boarders are not to remain more than one week without a written order from the office, except where invited by the hostess to remain longer free of charge.

10. At the close of each season the contract with each house ends. If renewal is desired, application must be made as early as the third week in April.

11. Blanks for boarding bills are furnished by the Association, ruled for dates of arrival and departure, conduct, etc., and bills will not be paid until properly made out. We especially desire a careful report in words of the conduct of every guest.
